

Because there are so many reasons to learn more about your mental health

May is Mental Health Month

This month, let's focus on the importance of taking care of your mental health and what common symptoms or mental health concerns may look like. Because your mental health matters. You have support through your Optum Behavioral Health benefits, which provide long-term support and counseling with behavioral health providers.

For more information about mental health and to access your benefits, visit: www.liveandworkwell.com

24/7 support • Confidential in accordance with the law • For you and your family

This program should not be used for emergency or urgent care needs. In an emergency, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room. This program is not a substitute for a doctor's or professional's care. Consult with your clinician for specific health care needs, treatment or medication. Due to the potential for a conflict of interest, legal consultation will not be provided on issues that may involve legal action against Optum or its affiliates, or any entity through which the caller is receiving these services directly or indirectly (e.g., employer or health plan). This program and its components may not be available in all states or for all group sizes and is subject to change. Coverage exclusions and limitations may apply.

© 2021 Optum, Inc. All rights reserved. WF4187351 209022-042021 OHC