Important Information Regarding MDL 2724: Generic Pharmaceutical Pricing Antitrust Litigation

Why am I receiving this?

We want to inform you about solicitations your clients may be receiving from third-party vendors (such as Pearl Logic, Inc.), regarding the MDL 2724: Generic Pharmaceutical Pricing Antitrust Litigation. These vendors appear to be pursuing self-funded clients for potential recovery in this litigation.

What do I need to know?

Highmark has retained outside counsel, Lowey Dannenberg, P.C., to file claims on behalf of Highmark's fully insured and ASO groups for Highmark Inc., Highmark Delaware, Highmark New York, and Highmark West Virginia. Third-party vendors do not have access to your clients' data, and would charge additional fees for services already provided by existing Highmark agreements.

What do I need to do?

No action is required from you at this time. If an ASO client inquires about a solicitation they received regarding this litigation, please inform them they are already represented by Lowey Dannenberg, P.C. through Highmark. The client will not need additional representation. If an ASO client states they do not wish to be included in the representation, please notify us immediately.
